Author's Agreement

Title of Article: _____

International Journal of Health & Productivity (IJHP) requires the following Author's Agreement:

A signature below certifies compliance with the following two statements. Where there is more than one author, each must sign this agreement.

1. Sole submission: I affirm and represent that the submitted article is my original work: that none of the information has been published previously or is under consideration by another publication; that upon publication, nothing contained in the article will constitute an infringement of any copyright; and that its contents are neither libelous nor constitute an invasion of privacy.

2. Authorship certification: All persons designated as authors should qualify for authorship, and all those who qualify should be listed. Each author should have participated sufficiently in the work to take public responsibility for appropriate portions of the content. One or more authors should take responsibility for the integrity of the work as a whole, from inception to published article. Authorship credit should be based only on (a) substantial contributions to conception and design, or acquisition of data, or analysis and interpretation of data; (b) drafting the article or revising it critically for important intellectual content; and (c) final approval of the version to be published. Conditions a, b and c must all be met. Acquisition of funding, the collection of data, or general supervision of the research group, by themselves, do not justify authorship.

I have substantially contributed to the conception, composition, and revision of this article, and approved the final version to be published.

I acknowledge that I have met the terms outlined above.
