

2026 Individual Nominations for an IHPM Executive Award

Individual Nominations for IHPM Executive Leadership in Corporate Health and Productivity Management (CHPM) Award

Awards Committee

Sean Sullivan, JD – Chair | Dr. Bill Williams, NAMCP | Deborah Love, President

Thank you for your interest in IHPM's Executive Leadership in Corporate Health & Productivity Management Award!

IHPM invites you to submit a letter of request/recommendation for a key leader you are nominating as a recipient of the IHPM Executive Leadership Award in Health & Productivity Management or IHPM Chairman's Award. Content of the letter should address accomplishments and work which has been led or completed by this specific individual. Please note other awards and recognition the individual may have received or initiated in the areas of health and productivity management/wellbeing & performance. You may include letters of support from colleagues or individuals who support your nomination. There is no application fee.

Examples of earlier recipients you can read about are included in the history of IHPM awards on our website "Awards" page and in articles on LinkedIn. Here are a few examples:

David Hines, Executive Director of Benefits, Metro Nashville School District:

Please let us know what questions you may have or if you would like to discuss the process further. Most often, the nominee is unaware of being nominated or that they are receiving an award. It seems the element of surprise is quite rewarding to them and their peers!

Respectfully,
Deborah
